A TERRIBLE WRECK

The Purdue University Football Train in a Collision With Coal Cars at Indianapolis.

SIXTEEN PEOPLE WERE KILLED.

Nearly 50 Persons Injured in One of the Worst Railway Catastrophes in Indiana's History.

The First Two Cars of the Special Train Were Crushed as Though They Were the Frailest of Toys.

Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 2.—A catastrophe so awful that it fairly surpasses almost all that death has done in wanton cruelty, occurred Saturday morning upon the border of the city of Indianapolis. Speeding into the state capital the Purdue college football special, laden with joyous youth, crashed into a cut of coal cars, and in an instant 15 young lives were most horribly ended. About 47 people were injured.

No scene of carnage in war ever presented more frightful front than that which succeeded when, without warning, came the shock of the collision. The first two cars of the special train were crushed as though they were the frailest of toys. In the first rode the members of the Purdue team, trained to the hour for a game that was to have decided a precious championship, and flushed with the hope of victory over their old-time opponents.

Following is the list of those killed outright: W. H. Grube, Butler, Ind., substitute player; Charles Furr, Veedersburg, Ind., guard; E. C. Robertson, East Helena, Mont., assistant coach and captain of team two years ago; Walter L. Roush, Gas City, Ind., substitute; B. J. Powell, Corpus Christi, Tex., end player; W. D. Hamilton, Ill., center rush; Gabriel S. Drollinger, Newcastle, Ind., substitute; Samuel Squibb, Lawrenceburg, Ind., substitute; J. H. Hamilton, Huntington, Ind., substitute; N. E. Howard, Lafayette, president of the Indiana Laundrymen's association; Patrick McClair, Chicago, trainer; Samuel Truitt, Noblesville, substitute; G. L. Shaw, Indiana Harbor; Bert Price, Spencer, Ind., substitute; J. C. Coates, Berwin, Pa.

William Bailey, of New Richmond, Ind., substitute player on the Purdue university football team, died Sunday afternoon from internal injuries received in the Big Four wreck. This is the 16th death. His father arrived before he died.

Fourteen dead bodies were shipped to their homes Sunday and the body of Joseph Powell, of Corpus Christi, Tex., was sent home Monday morning in charge of Paul Sturm, an old classmate living here. Services were held Sunday afternoon over the body of E. C. Robertson, of East Helena, Mont., by Dr. J. Cumming Smith before the body was shipped home.

There are still lying in the hospitals 34 victims of the wreck, 33 of whom are students of Purdue university. Of these 15 are in a serious condition.

H. O. Wright, of Pendleton, Ind., substitute player, has a broken back and his recovery is not thought probable. He is too weak to permit of an operation. His parents have arrived.

A. L. Holter, of Oberlin, O., half-back on the team, has his legs crushed and is suffering from shock. Sim Miller, of Ninevah, Ind., played end of the team, has one leg broken twice and the other crushed. It is believed, however, he will recover. He is a brother of "Long John" Miller, who was captain of the Purdue team two years ago. C. O. Tangeman, of Fern Bank, O., student, has a slight fracture of the skull but it is believed will recover. C. C. Adams, of Osgood, Ind., member of the band, has an injured spine and is in a precarious condition. It was not known until Sunday that he was hurt, as he was taken to the home of relatives. Coach O. F. Cutts, of North Ansonia, Me., who worked over the injured all day and night, was ordered to the hospital Sunday afternoon and will have both legs in plaster casts for several weeks. There are crushed bones in each ankle.

H. G. Leslie, of West Lafayette, captain of last year's team and this year's fullback, has been under the influence of anaesthetics all day. He has a broken leg and broken jaw.

Prof. A. W. Bittling, of the Purdue faculty, is improving and his condition is not thought to be serious.

W. F. Collier, of Laporte, Ind., substitute player, has a broken jaw and is recovering.

J. R. Whitehead, of Toledo, O., substitute halfback, has a broken leg, but will recover.

Others of the injured, whose condition is not serious and who are expected to be able to leave the hospital in a few days, are:

D. B. O'Brien, of Syracuse, N. Y.;

M. Steele, of Canton, O.; J. H. Mowrey, of Chambersburg, Pa., who is spending his time encouraging the more seriously injured in spite of his own wounds; I. H. Long and D. H. Long, of Louisville; I. S. Osborne, of North Dover, O., captain of the football team, and W. C. Sprau, of Sandusky, O.

General Superintendent Van Winkle, of the Big Four Co., when asked Sunday night as to the cause of the wreck, said he was yet unable to state who was responsible. "I have no more idea as to the cause than I had two minutes after it happened," said he. "My time has been devoted to looking after the injured and the shipment of the dead."

HALLOWEEN PRANK.

Responsible For the Killing of a Chief of Police and Threatened Race War.

Chicago, Nov. 2.—The celebration of Halloween was responsible for the killing of the chief of police of Morgan Park and a threatened race war early Sunday.

A woman's Halloween prank started the trouble, which ended in the killing of George A. Alrie, chief of police of Morgan Park, by Mack Wiley, a young Negro. Mrs. James Jayne, who is a sister of Wiley, and three friends started out for a lark and while they were overturning a lumber pile, it is said, the woman was struck by Chief of Police Alrie. The Negroes went for reinforcements and upon their return a second meeting with Alrie resulted in a fight in which he was stabbed in the neck by Wiley. The news of the tragedy spread through the suburb and soon a crowd of half a hundred men and boys marched to the Morgan Park jail, where four of the Negroes had been locked up. While the place was surrounded by a mob clamoring for vengeance, several shotguns being in evidence in the crowd, Wiley and his companions were placed between a number of policemen who had been summoned from Harvey and other nearby suburbs, and a dash was made for a carriage that had been sent for.

Despite the threats of the officers that any interference by the crowd meant instant death, the enraged villagers, who by this time had secured a rope, rushed on the prisoners. A fierce fight followed in which the Negroes were severely cut and bruised with sticks and stones, but the officers finally managed to get the Negroes in the carriage and drove off under a shower of bricks, stones and other missiles. The prisoners were taken to Englewood jail where Sunday Wiley confessed to having killed Alrie.

FUNERAL PARTY RUN DOWN.

Four Persons Killed and the Corpse Torn From Its Coffin.

Charlotte, N. C., Nov. 2.—Four persons, all white, were killed instantly and a corpse was torn from its coffin by a locomotive of a south-bound passenger train on the Southern railway, at a point four miles from Concord Sunday morning.

All the victims lived in the vicinity of the tragedy. They were in a wagon with the corpse of Mrs. Kate Lewis and were on their way to a neighboring burial ground. At the point where the accident occurred the county road runs alongside the railroad for a considerable distance, the view being unobstructed. The engineer saw the funeral party but there was no cause for him to anticipate a tragedy. Just before the train was abreast of the wagon the mules drawing the wagon became unmanageable and swerved, carrying the wagon directly in front of the train. The casket containing the corpse was broken to pieces and the corpse was hurled through the air with the victims.

CONEY ISLAND FIRE SWEEP.

Three Hundred Buildings Destroyed Entailing a $1,000,000 Loss.

New York, Nov. 2.—Coney Island Sunday was swept by fire, 300 buildings being destroyed, entailing a loss of $1,000,000. The fire started near the steeplechase park and swept along the Bowers district, which is filled with flimsy frame structures. The principal buildings destroyed were Stauch's hotel and pavilion and Henderson's theater, both brick structures erected since the great fire of Chicago. Details of police from Manhattan and Brooklyn aided the firemen and controlled the great crowds.

Two lives so far are reported to be lost, one man mortally injured, a score of others hurt. How many more dead are in the ruins is not yet known.

Convention of Women's Clubs.

Covington, Ky., Nov. 2.—The members of the Twentieth Century club will assemble in convention at the Trinity church, November 11 and 12. It was the intention to hold the convention in the auditorium of the new public library, but the structure will not be completed by that time. A large number of notable women from throughout the state will attend.

VATICAN IN FLAMES

Fire Broke Out in the Hall of Inscriptions Where the Pope Gives Audiences.

NEXT TO GALLERY OF PICTURES.

After Burning For Three Hours the Flames Were Gotten Under Control by Rome Firemen.

For the First Time Since the Fall of the Temporal Power Italian Authorities Were Invited to Enter the Structure.

Rome, Nov. 2.—Fire broke out at 8:30 o'clock Sunday evening in that portion of the vatican containing the hall of inscriptions, where the pope gives his audiences and which is adjacent to the famous pinacoteca, or gallery of pictures.

The first intimation of fire was had when smoke was seen issuing from the apartment of M. Marle, which is located above that of Father Ehrle, the librarian, who lives over the library itself. M. Marle is a celebrated French restorer of ancient manuscripts and illuminated books; he is at present engaged in copying work and his first reproductions have been selected for part of the vatican's exhibit at the St. Louis exposition. The famous Bramante staircase leads to that part of the vatican where the fire broke out. The gendarmes broke in the door of M. Marle's apartment and found him in a heavy sleep. It is supposed that he retired and forgot to take proper precaution with his kitchen fire, which probably blazed up and ignited some nearby hangings. Thus the fire started and it rapidly assumed such proportions that the gendarmes, who were the first on the scene, gave an immediate general alarm.

News of the fire was immediately conveyed to the pope, who was found kneeling in his chapel for his usual evening prayer. He insisted on going at once to the scene. He proceeded to the library, accompanied by Mgr. Merry del Val, the papal secretary of state, Mgr. Bisleti, the papal major domo, and Mgr. Dellachise, and followed by the members of the noble guard attached to his person. The moment he arrived his mind grasped the gravity of the situation and he ordered that the firemen of Rome be called. The firemen arrived in about ten minutes, and although they brought four engines with them and were at once ready to begin operations, it took some time to find the best way to get sufficient water supply with which to fight the fire. In the meantime the flames had begun to break out of the windows of M. Marle's apartment and were destroying the roof. The flames lighted up the entire district and gave the impression that nothing could stop their fury.

When the fire engines began work, three rooms were already entirely destroyed by the flames, which were extending to the other apartments. The pope withdrew as soon as he saw that everything possible was being done to fight the fire.

Information had been sent the Italian authorities, who hurried to St. Peter's. They were courteously invited to enter and did so. Therefore, for the first time since the fall of the temporal power of the vatican, the mayor of Rome, the prefect, police officials and even Signor Ronchetti, the newly appointed minister of justice, entered the vatican in their official capacities. They gave orders directing the work of combatting the flames and participated personally in the fight. It was a very difficult fire to overcome; there were a number of old and inflammable objects in the apartment of M. Marle and the wooden roof over this room facilitated the passage of the flames to adjoining rooms, also full of combustible materials. The competition between the papal firemen and the firemen of Rome to see who should work the harder and do the most resulted in a display of courage which was really admirable, some of the fire fighters risking their lives until they were restrained by their superiors.

At a little after 11 o'clock the fire was under control, but the work of the firemen will continue for some time. Fresh relays of men are being sent to relieve those whose efforts have exhausted them.

The entire museum of inscriptions, the rooms of Father Ehrle, part of the library and the printing houses were entirely flooded with water. It is impossible to reach an approximate idea of the extent of the damage.

Many things that escaped the flames were injured by water, especially the precious private library of Pope Leo, which Father Ehrle had been rearranging in accordance with the last wish of the late pontiff.

College Burned By Official Order.

New York, Nov. 2.—The employees who guard the New York city watershed at Amawalk, Westchester county, burned the large $100,000 college of the Christian brothers, a Catholic institution. It was destroyed to make room for waterworks.

THE GROOM WANTED A RECEIPT.

He Paid For a License But Wanted Something to Show For It.

Covington, Ky., Nov. 2.—Earl C. Creider, 21, and Catherine Schmitt, 21, a well-dressed and handsome couple from Lewisburg, O., applied at the county clerk's office in Covington Sunday evening for a marriage license. When the credentials were given the couple left the office to go to Rev. N. H. Carlisle's residence to be united, but a minute later the young man rushed back into the office and asked Deputy Clerk Young for a receipt.

The clerk told him that the certificate was a receipt, but Creider wanted another one to show that he had paid for the license. When told that no receipts are issued he departed in disgust. Rev. Mr. Carlisle performed the ceremony, and the young people left in the evening for Lewisburg. The bridegroom was recently discharged from the army, after having served in the Philippines and Cuba.

HORSEMEN AT LEXINGTON.

John E. Madden, Charley Hughes, E. R. Bradley and Others.

Lexington, Ky., Nov. 2.—John E. Madden, owner of Hamburg Place, left here Sunday night after a flying visit to his stud, and started for Washington, where a portion of his stable is now located preparatory to the Benning meeting. He will race in the Capital city. On the same train went Charley Hughes, trainer for H. M. Ziegler, the Cincinnati turfman, and bound for the same destination. Among other visitors of note in the racing world to this city Sunday was E. R. Bradley, the well known bookmaker and owner. He came in Sunday morning and went out to the track to watch the youngsters work, which developed nothing of a sensational character, and the owner of Bad News, Peter Paul and other good ones left again Sunday night for Latonia.

He is well known and very popular among the younger members of Louisville society.

CARS OF DYNAMITE

Two Exploded in the Railway Yards at Crestline, O., Causing Much Destruction.

WINDOW GLASS IS IN DEMAND.

In the Downtown District There is Not a Building That Has Not Suffered Considerable Damage.

Many Persons Were Cut and Otherwise Hurt By Flying Glass—Two Men Half a Mile Away Possibly Fatally Hurt.

Crestline, O., Nov. 2.—Crestline and vicinity was thrown into a panic Sunday night by a terrible explosion at 8 o'clock. Many buildings were shaken and in some instances the walls fell. Church congregations were thrown into screaming masses of humanity. People who were at home were terrified by the fearful roar that was heard. Two cars of dynamite which exploded in the Pennsylvania yards was the cause of the excitement. The destruction is so complete and so great that it is impossible to say anything of the property damage or whether there is any life lost, Sunday night.

Yardmaster Courtier and Clerk Gelsinger, who were at work in the yard office half a mile away were seriously and possibly fatally hurt by the destruction of the building in which they were working.

Hundreds of Pennsylvania employees are at work searching the ruins for the dead or injured. The entire west yards of the road is a complete wreck. Officials of the railroad have said that there are no less than 325 cars smashed.

Where the explosion occurred a hole 20 feet wide twice as long and 15 feet deep has been torn into the ground. Engines at work a mile away were thrown from the track.

In the down-town portion of the city there is not a building that has not suffered considerable damage. Many persons who were on the streets were cut and otherwise hurt by flying glass, and hundreds of women are in a serious condition from shock and concussion. All the physicians of the city are at the scene of the wreck to assist those who may be found injured. The streets are filled with people who do not wish to go home. The sidewalks and road are littered with the glass from the shattered panes. The mayor has sworn in many extra policemen to guard the property.

All the churches were holding services when the explosion occurred. Doors were blown off and windows smashed in many of the buildings. The full extent of the loss to property will not be known for many days. And it can not be told for several hours whether there has been loss of life or not. The disaster is one of the worst that Crestline has experienced. The wrecked cars are burning and the spectacular effects are magnificent. The explosion was plainly heard 50 miles away. Trains on the Pennsylvania road will be delayed for at least one day. Trains have been sent to Cleveland and Pittsburg for an unlimited supply of glass.

REMEMBER, Democrats, it is most important that every Democratic vote be cast to-morrow for Harbeson, Slattery, Woodward, Bruce and McKnight.

EVERY DEMOCRAT TO HIS DUTY.

This issue of the EVENING BULLETIN marks the closing of the campaign in Kentucky. To-morrow the people will be called on to choose a Governor and other State officers, members of the Legislature, Judges of the Circuit Court, Commonwealth's Attorney and various local officers.

"It is an occasion of much moment to the people of Kentucky," the Courier-Journal well says, "involving as it does their political status for the next four years and having a remote bearing upon the Presidential election in the coming year. If the Democratic party shall carry the State by such a majority as will indicate beyond doubt that the differences which once placed it in a minority are healed, and that harmony directs its counsels, it will give encouragement throughout the Union to the Democrats who have been contending against odds, and inspire them with similar energy and harmony necessary to success."

The Courier-Journal's advice to Democrats is to the point, and impresses upon every Democrat the importance of the duty he owes to his party and to his State: While there is every prospect for a successful issue it behooves the Democracy to relax no effort. On the contrary let the canvass be pressed in every precinct and county in the State, as if the result depends on one's particular locality or individual vote. Over-confidence is quite as dangerous as lack of confidence. The men who win in life, as in politics, are those who fight as if there were imminent danger of losing. Let the work be not only zealous, but systematic. Organization is the weapon which wins in politics as well as in war. The time is short and the season favorable for work. The stake is worth it. It is a contest of principles. It is the Democratic principle which lies at the foundation of the Republic and of the State. It gave birth to Kentucky and has made her great among States, in the virtue of her people and the prosperity with which she abounds. Therefore let every Democrat in the broad confines of the State be alive to his duty from now until the polls close on the 3rd of November and he will have the proud satisfaction of having personally contributed to a victory which will add new honor to Kentucky and its Democracy.

Death of Mr. W. W. King.

His wife, who was a Miss Bramel, survives, and he leaves two children, Prof. W. P. King and Miss Allie Lee King, and one brother, Noah, the latter of Fleming County. The funeral took place this morning at the Lewisburg Baptist Church, Rev. E. E. Moss officiating. Interment in Lewisburg Cemetery.

JUDGE WALL REPLIES

To Walker Hall's Attack on Proposed Constitutional Amendment.

Quotes Sections of Constitution Which Show That Corporations Could Not Be Specially Favored If Amendment is Adopted.

Editor of Bulletin: The proposed amendment to Sec. 187 of the Constitution was endorsed a year ago by the "Commercial Convention" of Kentucky. The act authorizing a vote on same was approved and passed by the Legislature nearly two years ago. Col. Bisknap and Gov. Beckham endorsed it. The leading politicians and every prominent business man in the State are urging its passage, and a committee of fifteen reputable men, selected from every portion of the State, has given its time and influence to secure its adoption at the November election. Now comes an unknown quantity by the name of Walker C. Hall, of Covington, whose article was in BULLETIN on Friday, and in effect, says, that all of the above supporters of this measure are simply frauds and cheats, and in a forty line article, written designedly on the eve of the election to prevent any response, has maliciously misstated the object of the amendment, and, without quoting the amendment, without the use of a single argument, says that the amendment is exclusively in the interest of corporations and accumulated wealth—a statement that Mr. Hall, if not an ignoramus, knows to be false.

Sec. 170 of the Constitution says, "All laws exempting or commuting property from taxation shall be void."

Sec. 171 says, "Taxes shall be uniform upon all property subject to taxation."

Sec. 174 says, "All property, whether owned by natural persons or corporations," shall be taxed, and "corporate property shall pay the same rate of taxation paid by individual property."

Mr. Hall knows that there can be no special legislation in Kentucky, and no special privileges given to banks or accumulated wealth. The amendment asks for no change as to the provisions of the above quoted section, but asks that our city authorities, subject to the provisions of the above sections, be empowered to collect city taxes, not alone by the ad valorem system, but also by license, based on income, and upon occupations, trades and franchises. In other words, to adopt any mode that will produce the most revenue and the least injury, and enable our cities to compete with the cities of other, more prosperous States.

If the voters have more faith in Mr. Hall than in the above array of supporters, then defeat the amendment and let old Kentucky still remain a laggard.

GARRETT S. WALL,
Chairman Ninth District.

THE MARKETS.

Review of Trade in Live Stock and Tobacco the Past Week at Cincinnati.

Cattle—Supplies were just moderate and the demand for good to choice butcher grades was sufficient to add 10@15c. to prices generally, compared with the previous week's sales.

Hogs—The market has been erratic, but, on the whole, weak and declining. Receipts were fairly liberal and packers were the best buyers. Best sales of butchers and packers were at $5.60@6.80, while light pigs brought best prices, $5.30@5.60. Closing prices for butchers and packers, $3.30@5.50, are 20c. lower than a week ago, and light hogs at $5.20@5.50 are only 5c. lower. The market closes active, but at weak prices.

Sheep—There has been practically no change in the market during the week, but lambs were moderately stronger and are about 20@35c. higher than a week ago, good to best bringing $5@5.60.

Tobacco—The week has been full of surprises, not only in the sharp advances and higher prices obtained for high-grade tobaccos, but also in the unexpectedly large proportion of these goods which were ready and at hand to be thrown into the "breaks" to meet the demand.

The market opened strong and active on Tuesday, with unusually heavy offerings for the initial sales, and there was a gradual hardening in prices on all medium and fine grades on Wednesday, these types being a bid or two higher all around than last week. Another upward turn was noted on Thursday, while yesterday, usually, the "off day" of the week closed the market with very heavy offerings and the best prices of the year.

Opinions differ greatly as to the real cause of the sudden advance of the present week. Some very well posted men in the trade assert that the upward trend is purely legitimate, based on the now ascertained fact that the proportion of colory and really good leaf in the crop of 1903 is far less than was expected and that the crop is curing up in a very unsatisfactory manner.

Others claim with equal positiveness that the great manufacturing combines are bidding up and advancing values for the express purpose of disrupting the recently formed Growers' Association, acting on the theory that the present good prices being obtained will induce the members to withdraw from the organization.

A special request is made to the Democratic Inspectors in the various precincts of the county to telephone the BULLETIN the returns from the election next Tuesday evening just as soon as the count is completed. The public will be anxious to have complete returns in Wednesday's issue of the paper, and in order to tabulate the figures it will be absolutely necessary for us to have the vote on Tuesday evening, and at the earliest possible moment. The BULLETIN has telephone connection with all the precincts except Orangeburg and Plumville, and the Inspectors in those two should send the returns in as early as possible.

A prompt compliance with this request will be esteemed a special favor.

IMPRESSIVE REQUIEM SERVICES

Held Sunday at Cemetery at Washington
Were Attended by a Large Crowd.
Rev. Father Jones' Successful
Work in Improving
"God's Acre."

The successful ministry of Rev. P. M. Jones has been characterized by many improvements in St. Patrick's parish, but along no lines are his efforts more appreciated than in the work at the cemetery. Where unsightly hollows offended the eyes a green sward now curves, where brambles flourished, blue grass stretches. Weed-choked roads have been opened and many new avenues made. Five additional acres proportion the cemetery more evenly and a sexton's house is an impending improvement. For all this work Father Jones has made no demand upon his congregation. With business astuteness unapproached by his predecessors, he makes the regular cemetery revenues cover every expenditure. Notwithstanding all that has been accomplished, the work is yet rudimentary and there is much to expect in the future when all the ably-formulated plans have been executed.

Yesterday the annual requiem services were held at Washington, and reverence for the memory of their loved and appreciation of Father Jones' indomitable energy were evinced by an immense outpouring of people from the Mayslick and Maysville congregations, by both of whom the cemetery is shared. Rev. Eugene DeBruyn ably assisted Father Jones in the ceremonies, and his parishioners turned out en masse.

The orator of the day was Rev. Ieadore, a South American missionary, and a valued member of Mt. Adams Monastery, Cincinnati. He preached an able, touching and convincing sermon on the communion of saints, the Catholic doctrine which so closely unites the church living with the church dead.

The day had almost dimmed to twilight before the last carriage faced home, leaving God's acre to the hush of night and the star's eternal vigilance.

ROYALLY ENTERTAINED.

Mason County Medical Society Gave a Sumptuous Spread at Central Hotel Saturday—Interesting Addresses.

During the last three years the city members of the Mason County Medical Society have been entertained by the out-of-town doctors quite a number of times. At the meeting in Sardis in June at which time Dr. Adamson of that pleasant village, opened wide the doors of his hospitable home to all his brother physicians, from all over Miss in and Robertson counties, it was resolved that the next time of coming together, the Maysville men should play the host and repay some of their old debts. This was done on last Saturday.

At 12 o'clock, noon, President Hunter called the meeting to order at the G. A. R. Hall, and from that time until 2 o'clock a most interesting program was carried out. The society then adjourned to the New Central Hotel, where Mine Host Daugherty had spread a most sumptuous luncheon for the entertainment for the inner man.

Among those present were Drs. Davis of Mayslick, Hunter of Washington, Huddleston of Germantown, Cook of Wedonia, Adamson of Sardis, Ellis, Pickett, Browning, Cooper, Yazell, Adamson, Davis and Taulbee of this city. In addition there were a number of invited guests among whom were Drs. Ranschoff and Culbertson of Cincinnati, Laughlin of Aberdeen, Col. Maltby of Washington and several from Maysville, among them representatives of the press. It is not necessary to say this royal spread was enjoyed by every one present:

MENU.

Queen olives, Tomatoes with lettuce,
Mayonnaise dressing,
Shredded slaw, Cucumbers and onions,
Blue points on half shell.

SOUP.

Oyster.
Baked halibut with shredded potatoes,
Cold ham, Cold tongue,
Baked duck, with dressing,
Cranberry sauce.

Larded sweet breads with French peas,
Baked Italian macaroni with cheese,
Mashed potatoes, Corn pudding,
Asparagus tips on toast.

Candied sweet potatoes,
Mince, pumpkin and apple pie,
BRICK CREAM.

Vanilla, Chocolate, Strawberry,
Assorted cake,
Requefort, Swiss and Cream cheese,
Butter and Sweet milk,
Corn bread.

Mixed nuts, Oranges and Bananas,
Old Limestone whiskey,
California claret,
Wiedeman's bottle beer,
La Array and La Constellation cigars,
Assorted candies.

Dr. Culbertson gave a most interesting talk at the G. A. R. Hall at 1 o'clock, followed by a most interesting paper read by Col. Maltby in which he detailed an account of a murder case which took place in Central New York in 1846 at which time W. H. Seward appeared for the defence and John Van Buren for the State.

After the banquet at the hotel Dr. Ranschoff made a fine talk on operative surgery of the kidney. It was a highly interesting and instructive discourse, during which the doctor exhibited a large number of stones removed from the kidneys in his practice and also several X-ray pictures bearing on the subject. His address was ably discussed by Drs. Taulbee, Adamson and Ellis of this city, Dr. Taulbee dwelling upon the necessity of preventative and curative medication in renal calculi.

All in all, it was one of the most enjoyable and profitable sessions the society has ever held.

TENEMENT HOUSE FIRE.

Twenty-Six Persons, Mostly Italians,
Burned to Death.

New York, Nov. 2.—Twenty-one men, three women and a ten-months-old babe were burned to death or suffocated in a fire that started early Sunday morning in the house of "All Nations," a five-story tenement house at No. 425 Eleventh avenue and which the police and coroner believe to have been of incendiary origin.

Some of the peculiar features of the disaster, in addition to the startling loss of life, are that the fire was practically extinguished in 20 minutes, that the police could learn of but one person being injured, other than those who lost their lives, and that the property loss was only $7,000. Nearly all the dead are Italians.
